Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, It is right and proper that recognition be given to outstanding educators; and

WHEREAS, One such outstanding individual is Marilyn Dahm, who has retired from the Rapid City school system after thirty-five years of service to the children of the community; and

WHEREAS, Marilyn Dahm began her teaching career in 1954, teaching fourth and sixth graders until 1965. From 1965 to 1989, Marilyn taught Title I/Chapter 1 reading at Horace Mann Elementary School and enriched the lives of hundreds of children through this reading program; and,

WHEREAS, Marilyn has been an active member of the local, state, and national Reading Council:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 29, 1989, as in South Dakota in recognition of her dedication to youth and for her tremendous ability to open the wonderful world of reading to so many. I am very honored to take this opportunity to pay tribute to Marilyn and join in wishing her well in her retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
